ADDISON

BROOKFIELD'S FIRST MASTER-PLANNED COMMUNITY

Brookfield Residential has been one of the largest residential developers in Greater Austin, and active in Texas since 2007. Based in Canada, Brookfield unveiled Addison, its first master-planned community, located in Southeast Austin. Addison is a walkable home community, offering two resident pools, a fitness center and pavilion. The fitness center includes equipment for a full workout, from cardio to resistance tools, a functional trainer and free weights.
